

Rules for Entry for 2008 Canadian Sport Horse Breed Classes - Ontario Chapter

- 1a. To be eligible to compete in Ontario Chapter CSHA sanctioned shows, owners of horses must be:
 - Current Annual member of the CSHA and not in arrears to the Association, Ontario Chapter or any Ontario Chapter sanctioned show.
 - Current member of the Ontario Equestrian Federation
- 1b. Riders and handlers must be OEF members.
- 1c. In all CSH classes, juniors must wear an approved helmet and are not permitted to show stallions other than colt foals of the current year.
- 2a. Only offspring identified in the following books are eligible to compete in Canadian Sport Horse Breed Classes, except as noted for Yeld mare, Broodmare or Stallion classes:
 - Mare Book (F1, 2)
 - Premium Mare Book (F 3,4)
 - Stallion Book (F 1,2,3,4)
 - Main Stud Book (F5 or higher)
- 2b. Yeld Mare: A mare three years of age or over, and approved for breeding purposes, that has not raised a foal in the current year but has been bred in the current year. Certificate of service must accompany the entry. If a mare had a foal die prior to nursing or a foal that died within two months of birth shall be classified as a Yeld Mare. Mares inspected and entered in the Pre-Stud Book (F0) in addition to those mares inspected and approved for breeding entered in the Mare, Premium Mare of Main Stud Books are eligible. Mares recorded in the Pre-Stud Book are eligible to compete for Mare Championships but are not eligible to compete for Grand Championships.
- 2c. Brood Mare: A mare three years of age or over approved for breeding purposes and has raised a foal in the current year. Mares inspected and entered in the Pre-Stud Book (F0) in addition to those mares inspected and approved for breeding entered in the Mare, Premium Mare of Main Stud Books are eligible. Mares recorded in the Pre-Stud Book are eligible to compete for Mare Championships but are not eligible to compete for Grand Championships.
- 2d. Stallions: Three years of age or over and approved for breeding purposes and licensed in the current year as a Canadian Sport Horse Stallion. Stallions entered in the Pre-Stud, Stallion or Main Stud Book. Stallions recorded in the Pre-Stud Book are eligible to compete for Stallion Championships but are not eligible to compete for Grand Championship.
3. Copy of identification papers must accompany entry form or provide proof that application (all documents and fees) for identification papers has been received by the National Office and that the horse is eligible to show as per 2 above.
4. Copy of Negative Coggins test dated within the current year is required for all shows. Foals less than 6 months of age are exempt.
5. To qualify for year-end awards, the horse must have been shown at a minimum of 2 shows. Points for year-end awards are tabulated up to the horse's top two thirds of CSHA sanctioned shows. (i.e. – 9 shows eligible – points from the best 6 shows to count)
6. Jeans will not be allowed in the show ring worn by handlers.
